FAQ

What is 1.5square metres?

Examples are:

1000mm x 1500mm = 1.5 square metres

What is meant by the theme “Celebrating Historic Cardwell Shire”?

For the sake of this competition; anything to do with life and times in Cardwell Shire. It may relate to Indigenous History, European History, your life in the shire, flora, fauna or landscapes of the shire, shapes that reflect your perception of life in the historic Cardwell Shire. It really is a very broad concept, whatever you see as your depiction, in any medium, 2 or 3 dimensional.

All entries will be judged in this category and it will be left to the discretion of our judge/s to decide the winner.

How can I join Hinchinbrook Regional Arts Inc as an artist?

To be eligible to join Hinchinbrook Regional Arts Inc as an exhibiting artist you need to reside within our “capture” area. This area is a designated radius around Cardwell township, it extends to Bluewater in the south, Babinda to the north and Malanda to the west. The idea of a set area outside of larger cities was to ensure that artists and craft workers outside of these centres might have access to an art groups’ facilities, support, networking and opportunities to exhibit.

Membership Fees for qualifying exhibiting artists: $25.00 pa

[other membership criteria applies]

Why limit who may enter the exhibition?

This is the inaugural “Cardwell Art Prize” and it is a year of great historic significance to Historic Cardwell Shire. Cardwell was the first port in the north and our shire was the first to be established in North Queensland. The Council of the Shire of Cardwell in all its forms will finally cease to exist at the end of June 2008. So, for this inaugural year of the Cardwell Art Prize we are limiting entry to those who reside within the shire and those with an association with our Cardwell Shire based art group. (Members of the Hinchinbrook Regional Arts. Assn., Inc.)
